Q&A About Using Your Behavioral Telehealth Service by Recuro

Q: What type of Behavioral Health specialists are available?

Answer: Your options include psychiatrists, psychologists, counselors, clinical social workers, and therapists.

Q: How much does a visit cost?

Answer: Your visits are free for both therapists and psychiatrists - including the initial intake visit.

Q: Do I have to schedule an appointment or can I just call and get the next available time?

Answer: All Behavioral Telehealth visits are scheduled for a specific date and time which you select when initiating a visit.

Q: Can I select my doctor based on preferences such as specialty, gender, language?

Answer: Specialist profiles display information about each Recuro professional, including gender, language and specialty. This information will display when making your specialist selection.

Q: How long is the typical Behavioral Telehealth visit?

Answer: Behavioral Telehealth visits average 45 minutes. Psychiatry visits vary in length based on the patient need.

Q: Is this service available to children under the age of 18?

Answer: Yes! Therapy and psychology visits are available for children 14 and up.

Q: Are there Behavioral Telehealth issues not treated by Recuro?

Answer: There are some medications not provided by Recuro psychiatrists. In some instances, the psychiatrist may determine that a different or higher level of medication is appropriate and this may require an in-person visit referral.

Q: How secure is the communication line and who retains my medical records?

Answer: Confidentiality is taken very seriously. Recuro follows strict protocols to ensure all medical records are kept in a secure environment and are not shared with anyone outside of your specific request or as required by law.

Q: What can be shared with PCPs?

Answer: Recuro doesn't include your Behavioral Telehealth visit information in medical records sent to your primary care provider.

Q: Will I be able to schedule recurring appointments? If so, how far in advance can I schedule?

Answer: At the end of the visit, the provider will schedule a follow-up if they think it's necessary. At this time, only the next visit can be scheduled.

Q: Can I talk to the same specialist each time I request a visit?

Answer: Yes. You can choose to see the same specialist or a different one. It's your choice.

Q: Is there bilingual assistance provided for my visit?

Answer: Provider's languages are displayed on the profile screen when making your selection. If a bilingual specialist isn't available, an interpreter will be provided.

Q: Are there limits to how many visits can be scheduled within a month?

Answer: Not at this time. However, regular evaluation is done to ensure compliance with patient safety standards.
